A sense of Humon was the next quality the preacher added to the list, and he entered on a long dissertation upon wit and humor to explain his reasons for naming it. "Blessed," said he, "are the men who know how to put this cushion between themselves and all the sharp corners of lite." To the man who can look at things from a humorous point of view troubles are not half so hard to bear, and the enemy of care seems to lose its cutting edges when brought to bear upon a man like that. When a man has this atmosphere of the soul he has got a summer day, and in that summer reason and conscience will act better, and he is better competent to discharge all the duties of lite. That condition is far more tavorable to grace than any other; certainly far more than this masked sobriety and stolid hardness which a great many persons suppose to be the essence of the graces and of true manhood. I say that good nature, che riulness and imagination is grace. It may be said that this disposition tends to relax the conscience. Well, that would be the best thing about it for some consciences. Loyola was one of the most conscientious men that ever lived. Paul was never more conscientious than when he carried the bloody sword into Africa, and the cruelest men in this world are the men with limited sympathies and hard consciences. A man who ties himself up in every direction for fear of sinning is not so good as a man who lets himself out and then says: "I

IMPERIAL SPORT. -The Empress of Austria made her first appearance in the hunting field this season on Saturday, when the Bicester hounds met at Thorpe Mandeville, near Banbury. The weather was beautiful, and there was a very large field. An excellent ruo was had, and ultimately the fox was killed and the "brush" was presented to the Empress.

Her Majesty left Banbury on Saturday evening by the Great Western Railway for London. Yesterday morning Her Imperial Majesty and the members of her suite attended divine service at the Chapel of the Society of Jesus in Farm street, Berkeley square. Between twelve and one o'clock the Empress, with her attendants, left by the Great Westero Railway for Windsor, to pay a visit to the Queen. On her return home the Empress and suite were detained nearly two hours on the line, owing to the suow storm, and in the evening the Empress and her immediate attendants dined alone at their hotel. Count Schouvaloff, Prince Batthyany and many others called at Claridge's during yesterday to pay their respects to Her Imperial Majesty.

It is understood that the Empress and several of those in waiting on her leave town this morning on a visit to Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild at Leighton House for a day's hunting, and will afterwards return to her botel, and that to morrow she will have a day's hunt ing with Mr. Lowndes' hounds.-From the London Times, March 13.

The total cost of the free schools in this State from 1871 to 1875, both years inclusive, was $4,557,596.73. In 1871 the amount expended was $587,472.39, of which $382,217 17 was from State taxation, $160,021.31-from local taxation, and $45,233.91 from the Peabody fund and private sources. In 1872 the amount was $993,318.59, of which the State tax paid $422 602.43, local tax $468,967.96, and the Peabody tund, &c., $101,748 20. In 1873 the cost was $950,419.05 of which $424,154.30 was State taxes, $434,111.08 local taxes, and $92.153.67 from the Peabody fund, &c. In 1874 the expenditures were $1,004,990.02, of which State taxes were $456,262.97, local taxes $454.274.59, and from Peabody fund, &c., $94.452.46. In 1875 the sum expended was $1,021,396.68, of which $478,750.46 was from State tax-s. $465,414.09 from local taxes, and $77,232.13 from the Peabody fund, &c. During the five years"the school system of the State has received $2,163,987.33 from State taxation, $1,982,789.03 from local taxation, and $410.820.37 from the Peabody fund and private donations. Total, $4,557,596 72.

POLITICAL. - The Chicago Times, referring to the fact that a bill has been introduced in the House to go back to the elective system in the District of Columbia, says it "cannot fail to be an improvement, if the electoral body is composed exclusively of the substantial taxpayers; but if the superlative folly of giving votes to the whole mass of lazy loafers and bar-room bummers, black and white, who infest the city is to be re-enacted, the present system may as well be let alone." This is the view of the matter tiken by other leading papers of the North and

OUR FIFTY CENT JAPAN TEA-We have just received another lot of this fine flavored Tea. It has been pronounced superior in flavor to the celebrated fifty cent Tea of Washington city by persons who have used both. We invite those persons who have been buying in Washington and those who want a nice flavored cheap Tes to give us a trial. We are confident that one trial will convince you that we sell a better Tea for fifty cents than can be bought in Washington city. GEO. McBURNEY & SON, 166 and 170 King street.
